

JUSTICE IN BACK SEAT FOR CUPID

Judge Herman Joseph Interrupts a Trial to Wed William Corby Kompland, Jr., and Mrs. Rose Saxe.

THEN GIVES THE BRIDE A KISS

She is Tall and He is Short, but the Judge Imitates Arthur Dunn and Beats the Netherlands Kiss Record by Four Seconds.

Cupid tripped into the Seventh District Municipal Court to-day and made Justice go back and sit down.

Judge Herman Joseph and a jury had their brows wrinkled over a knotty case when William Corby Kompland, Jr., of No. 121 West Nineteenth street, and Mrs. Rose Saxe, a beautiful blonde widow, of No. 1222 Madison avenue, appeared in the doorway.

Telling the lady not to be afraid—he would be back in a minute—Mr. Kompland, Jr., walked up to the bench and whispered something in the judge's ear.

"Really?" remarked the Judge, in some surprise.

His informant nodded.

The widow, when the judge looked inquiringly in her direction, blushed prettily and dropped her eyes, just like a stage bride-to-be.

The judge raised his finger, cutting off the heated argument of an unnecessarily excited attorney and waking up a juror whose chin had fallen on a crocheted tie.

"Gentlemen," he said, "will you kindly excuse me a minute while I bring you to a couple of souls?"

The jury having grinned acquiescence, Mr. Kompland and Mrs. Saxe took their places, held fast, and a moment later had safely rounded the curve of matrimony.

An awkward silence followed the fateful words, broken only when a juror attempted a left-foot swing and landed heavily on a cuspidor.

At this point the bridegroom proudly straightened up, and with a proprietary glance at his bride, said:

"Well, I suppose the Judge is entitled to the first kiss if he wants it."

The judge assured him he wanted it so much he could taste it.

"Help yourself," said the generous bridegroom.

Well, now, that wasn't so easy, for it so happened that the bride was statu-que, while the Judge came hardily to her shoulders.

But the Judge had seen how Arthur Dunn managed it in "A Kiss for Each Day in the Week," and he proved himself a good imitator.

One of the jurors, who had a stopwatch, timed the operation. He reported that the kiss lasted fifteen seconds.

This is the world's record, beating the famous Netherlands kiss by four seconds.

MARKS STILL LEFT OF ABNORMAL HIGH TIDE

Cellars in the Shipping District Were Flooded and Some Boats Barely Escaped Accident.

Along the water front the marks were still visible to-day of the abnormally high tide which inundated the docks late last night and broke over the sea wall at the battery. Cellars in the shipping district were flooded, and a number of boats barely escaped accident because of broken timbers.

While the tide was at its height a great crowd of anxious parents gathered about the gates of the Staten Island ferry waiting for the return of their children who had been upon an all-day excursion to New Dorp under the auspices of St. Peter's School, in Washington street. The party was two hours late in arriving, there being in the meanwhile many rumors of mishaps.

Early today a thick fog enveloped the bay and city, impeding river traffic and causing a delay to incoming steamships.

CHASE THIEVES BY LADDER AND ROOF

Police Have Lively Run After Amateur Burglars, One of Whom Drops Bag Full of New Shoes.

ONE FORCED TO JOIN HUNT.

Roundman, by Use of Revolver, Persuades Youth to Climb Fire-Escape in Pursuit of Another Member of the Gang.

Four young men, who led the police of the Oak street station a lively chase over housetops and fire-escapes just before daybreak, were arraigned in the Centre Street Court to-day and charged with petit larceny. The police say they are amateurs caught in their first attempt at burglary.

The prisoners were Henry Burns, a driver, of No. 12 Chatham square; Robert Byrnes, of No. 41 Mott street; Charles Schlansky, of No. 65 Catharine street, and John Shea, of No. 114 East One Hundred and Fourteenth street.

Policeman John Daly spotted them walking down Oliver street, one of them carrying a sack over his shoulders. He gave chase and they broke and ran.

Daly followed the man with the bag and rapped for assistance. His man threw the bag into an airway before he was captured. He proved to be Robert Byrnes, and the bag when recovered contained eleven pairs of new shoes, evidently taken from a broken show window.

Roundman Mulhall took after Schlansky and Shea. The latter he nabbed at Catharine and Delancey streets, but Schlansky evaded him by running up a fire-escape. The roundman with one prisoner on his hands was in a quandary. He feared to shoot lest his bullet go into a window, so he forced Shea at the point of his revolver to climb the fire-escape ahead of him, and then he brought both men down.

Policeman Montgomery followed Henry Burns and was led a merry chase up the fire-escape of an Oliver street tenement and over the housetops to Roosevelt street, where he finally landed his prisoner and took him down through a scullie.

When the men were lined up in the Oak street station Shea remarked to his comrades that they would have to change their jaunt to Coney Island to-day to a trip to the island.

CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA AND ALL LUNG DISEASES CURED AT HOME.

Wonderfully Successful Results by the Koch Inhalation System.

Many sufferers from diseases of the throat and lungs find it inconvenient, and in some cases impossible, to make regular visits for treatment to the Koch Lung Cure offices.

The Koch Tuberculin Home Treatment, with specially prepared Inhalation Apparatus, is now in successful use in thousands of American homes. This system uses exactly the same treatment that has cured hundreds of patients in New York and vicinity, and which is in successful operation in all the principal cities of the United States.

By the Koch system the healing, oily vapors, laden with the germ-killing "Tuberculin," are breathed directly into the sore places of the diseased lungs and air tubes, killing the germs and curing the disease.

Write for descriptive booklet, with symptom blank. The only New York office of the Koch Lung Cure is at 40 West 22d Street, where consultation, examination and trial treatment are given free. Newark office, 693 Broad Street.

SAYS POLICEMAN ACCUSES FALSELY.

Arraigned as an Improper Character, Young Woman Offers Proofs of Respectability.

Alina Stevens, a young woman living at No. 335 West Twenty-second street, when arraigned before Magistrate Pool in Yorkville Court to-day on a charge of soliciting, indignantly denied the charge and berated the patrolman who accused her. She was arrested last night shortly before 11 o'clock at Fourth avenue and Twenty-fifth street.

She told Magistrate Pool that she came here from Toledo some months ago and paid $130 for a course in dress designing. She had completed her course, and offered to prove her assertion by showing specimens of her handwork at her home. She said she was waiting for a car, when Patrolman Revin, of the East Twenty-second street station, in citizens' clothes, spoke to her respectfully and she answered him.

"Some policemen are altogether too zealous in making arrests," said Magistrate Pool, "and occasionally look up respectable women. I know of a case where a good married woman went to a drug store to get some medicine for a sick child and she was locked up all night."

The case was referred to Miss Smith, the Probation Officer in the court, with instructions to investigate.

BODY FOUND IN RIVER.

The body of Edwin Walters, fifty years old, of No. 223 West Fourth street, was found in the North River at the foot of Canal street to-day. He is supposed to have fallen overboard last Monday.

Booth, Who Escaped from Tombs, Is Recaptured and Says He Would Rather Be in Jail Here than Free Elsewhere

NABBED ON THE BOWERY.

Callahan, Who Escaped with Him, Is Still at Large and Also in the City, Booth Tells the Police.

"Why didn't I skip town? I'd rather be in jail in old New York than at liberty anywhere else," said Robert Booth, who with Callahan escaped from the Tombs on Tuesday last, when he was captured to-day in Myer's restaurant, at No. 277 Bowery.

Policeman John Butler and Detective Sergeant Larry Collins were walking up the Bowery when Booth entered the eating-house.

"There goes 'Slimy' Booth," said Butler.

"You're getting blind, John," replied
